

CSCL LeatherWork Virtual Competition

Open To All Members

The Annual General Meeting has been on hold since May 2020, and so has the Judged Competition. The AGM will be held virtually on a ZOOM Conference Call on May 8, 2021 Saturday Morning at 10am. Prior to the Annual, the Competition for Leatherwork will be judged from Photographs. The Council of Fellows set the Criteria for the Competition as follows:

- Must be a paid up member (2020) to submit photos.
- Articles must be not have been in competition prior to entry.
- Articles made after May 01, 2019 are eligible.
- Photos are to be uploaded to the CSCL Web site prior to April 17, 2021
- Maximum of articles/item per Member is 5.
- Minimum of 4 photos per item photos, Maximum of 12 photos per item
- Photos must be in focus and 5 MP or above 2000 pixel on the longest side. Larger photos are better.
- Brief Description and Membership level – General, Associate, or Fellow must accompany photos.
- Judging will be anonymous. Judging Committee will not be privy to the Maker.
- Zoom Judging Meeting will be on Sunday April 25 at 10am
- Prize Category will be set by Judges in attendance at Zoom Meeting.
- No Associate, Fellow or Weston Trophy will be Judged.
- Photos will be scored by at least 4 Judges
- Judge will score each article/item from 0 – 5, scores will averaged for a percent.

Photos of each article/item should be emailed separately to canadian.leathercraft.org@gmail.com
From there the photos will be uploaded to google albums and made available to all our Members.

This is the first Virtual Judging and the Fellows in the Council would like to see lots of entries from more Members. The Judges will be concerned with the leatherwork, construction, design, and colouring, more than the photos. It is a leatherwork competition not a photo contest.

Yours truly,
Lauchlan Harrison FCSCCL
