

ARTISTS IN LEATHER

The September meeting of the Woodstock branch of the Canadian Society for Creative Leathercraft was held at Springbank School. Mrs. K. O'Riley presided. Plans were made for a workshop in design, to be given by Pat Hart on Saturday, Oct. 5. The cost was established and the instruction will be given at 1 Light Street at 9:30 a.m. After the business meeting, Hilda Darbyshire demonstrated covering bottles with leather patchwork, to be used as a lamp base. The next meeting will be held at Springbank School, Thursday, Oct. 24, at 7:30 p.m. Nora Height will demonstrate moulded leather trays.

1974