

Report for Judging
Annual Competition
June 2th, 2023 at Visitors Inn Hamilton Ontario

From the Council of Fellows - Regarding Judging the June 2023 Annual Competition with Corrections in 2026

Present: Lauch, Nancy, Kim, & Sean
Call to Order at 9:38

The Annual Competition was opened June 2 to coincide with the Annual general Meeting. Lauch, Kim & Nancy met in the Visitors Inn to discuss and judge entries submitted by four Branches of the Society. The judges were keen to see the work and not too concerned about date of origin, as the last three years have been lost.

There is an emphasis on Fish Leather and the Fish Skin Pocketbook from Kim Winchester was awarded Best Fish Skin ($50) and Best Colour (Muma Award) ($50)

The Judges Awarded Craftsman Ribbons to the following Members & projects:

Calico Bag, Red Wallet, - Lauch Harrison. Braided Belt - Barry Taylor.

Zipper Hand Bag, Fringe Bag, Binder, Shoulder Backpack Bag, Low Brim Hat, Cowboy Hat, Hair Purse, Toiletries Bag, Buck Stitch Bag – Tammy Grey

Dog Leash, Leather Jacket, Leopard print Clamshell Purse, Fish Skin Pocketbook– Kim Winchester
Blue Clutch – Doug Schavo

The Judges were able to award the following pieces a Salon Ribbon – recognizing the elan and “Pop” these pieces bring to the table.

Buckstitch Purse – Tammy Grey

Braid Belt - Barry Taylor

Leather Jacket – Kim Winchester

The Judges were happy to award these prizes to well deserving members:

Best Novice Piece – Doug Schavo for Blue Clutch Purse ($50)

Best Member Piece - Tammy Grey – Buckstitch Purse ($50)

Best in Show – Tammy Grey – Buckstitch Purse ($50)

It was great to see the work from our members In the four Branches Hamilton, M A L, Mississauga & Norland.

Thanks
Lauch Harrison FCSCCL